Interim Measures Agreement

THIS AGREEMENT dated for reference this 15th day of July, 2003.

BETWEEN:

WET'SUWET'EN FIRST NATION
As represented by its duly elected Chief

(The "Wet'suwet'en First Nation")

AND

HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN IN RIGHT OF THE PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA
As represented by the Minister of Forests

(The "Government of British Columbia")

each of whom is a "party" to this agreement and both of whom are sometimes referred to as the "parties".

Purpose

1. The purpose of this agreement is to:

- (a) address issues regarding potential aboriginal rights and title raised by the Wet'suwet'en First Nation in relation to forestry decisions;
- (b) increase the Wet'suwet'en First Nation's participation in the forest sector;
- (c) provide for an economic development opportunity for the Wet'suwet'en First Nation;
- (d) provide for an invitation to the Wet'suwet'en First Nation to apply for a non-replaceable forest licence;
- (e) provide operational stability to forest and range resources development on

Crown lands within the asserted territory of the Wet'suwet'en First Nation as outlined in bold black on the attached Appendix "A" (the "Asserted Territory");

- (f) provide for development of a specific consultation process; and
- (g) further the Government of British Columbia's objective to offer other economic benefits to the Wet'suwet'en First Nation, including revenue sharing and additional forest tenure opportunities, in order to further address aboriginal interests, with a view to concluding an agreement dealing with those matters within one year.

Invitation to Apply for a Non-Replaceable Forest License

2. After the execution of this agreement by the parties, the Minister of Forests (the "Minister") will invite the Wet'suwet'en First Nation to apply for a non-replaceable forest license (the "License") for up to 25,000 cubic metres annually in the Lakes Timber Supply Area under section 47.3 of the Forest Act and within the Asserted Territory.
3. The invitation to apply under paragraph 2 of this agreement and any License entered into as a result of the invitation to apply under this agreement will be subject to the policies, regulations and statutes of British Columbia as amended from time to time.
4. The invitation to apply under paragraph 2 of this agreement will:
  - (a) contain terms and conditions required by the Minister, including the requirement that the Wet'suwet'en First Nation submit a business plan that is acceptable to the Minister with its application for the license, and
  - (b) terminate on December 31, 2003, if the Minister has not received an application for a License from the Wet'suwet'en First Nation by that date.
5. Any License entered into as a result of an invitation to apply under this agreement:
  - (a) will be for a term of no longer than three years as determined by the Minister;
  - (b) will not be transferable without the consent of the Minister;
  - (c) will contain other terms and conditions required by law, including the condition that the Wet'suwet'en First Nation must comply with this agreement; and,

- a) will include such other terms and conditions as may be required by the Regional Manager, including the condition that the harvesting of timber under the License will be conducted in accordance with the Provincial Forest Health Strategy for dealing with the Mountain Pine Beetle infestation.
6. The Minister may consider another non-replaceable forest licence opportunity for the Wet'suwet'en First Nation in the final year of any licence entered into as a result of the invitation to apply under this agreement.

Consultation

7. In consideration of the Minister's invitation to apply under this agreement:

- (a) Subject to paragraph 7(b), the Wet'suwet'en First Nation will upon reasonable notice and in a timely manner, share reasonably necessary information and consult on forest and range decisions and activities with:
- (i) the Government of British Columbia;
  - (ii) a holder of an agreement entered into under the Forest Act granting the holder a right to harvest Crown timber; and
  - (iii) a holder of an agreement entered into under the Range Act granting the holder a right to use or improve Crown range for grazing or cutting hay;

within the Asserted Territory;

- (b) the Parties will attempt to reach an agreement upon a specific process for consultation and will discuss, in the context of that process, accommodation as may be considered necessary by the parties with respect to forest and range decisions and activities within the Asserted Territory; and
- (c) the Wet'suwet'en First Nation acknowledges that the Provincial Policy for Consultation with First Nations dated October, 2002, and the Ministry of Forests Aboriginal Rights and Title Policy dated June 3, as each of them may be amended from time to time will be followed by the Ministry of Forests in the absence of a different consultation process being agreed upon under paragraph 7(b) of this agreement.

Stability On Crown Land

8. In consideration of the Minister's invitations to apply under this agreement, the Wet'suwet'en First Nation will not unlawfully interfere with the timber harvesting, timber harvesting related, grazing, hay cutting, or other like economic activities of:

- (1) the Government of British Columbia;
- (2) a holder of an agreement entered into under the Forest Act granting the holder a right to harvest Crown timber; and
- (3) a holder of an agreement entered into under the Range Act granting the holder a right to use or improve Crown range for grazing or cutting hay,

within the Asserted Territory.

Dispute Resolution

9. If a dispute arises between the Government of British Columbia and the Wet'suwet'en First Nation regarding the interpretation of a provision of this agreement, or the obligation of a party under this agreement, the parties or their duly appointed representatives will meet forthwith to consider the dispute and may attempt to resolve the dispute; failing which, either party shall be at liberty to seek relief from the courts.

Amendments

10. Any amendment to the terms and conditions of the agreement must be in writing and duly executed by the parties.

Entire Agreement

11. This agreement and any amendments to it constitute the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter of this agreement.

Term

12. This agreement will take effect on the date that it is executed by the parties.

13. This agreement will terminate on the occurrence of any of the following events, whichever occurs earliest:

16. Subject to paragraph 17, any notice or other communication will be deemed to have been given on the date it is received.
17. If any notice or other communication is received after 4:00 p.m., it will be deemed to have been received on the next business day.
18. The address of either party may be changed by notice in the manner required by this agreement.

Counterpart

19. This agreement may be entered into by each party signing a separate copy of this agreement, and delivering it to the other party by facsimile. Each facsimile will be deemed to be an original for all purposes, and all counterparts taken together will be deemed to constitute one document. A copy of this Agreement delivered by facsimile or other telecopier machine and bearing a copy of the signature of a party hereto shall for all purposes be treated and accepted as an original copy thereof.

Miscellaneous

20. Nothing in this agreement will be interpreted in a manner that requires the Ministry of Forests to act in a manner inconsistent with provincial or federal law, or that limits the statutory discretion of any government decision-maker.
21. This agreement is not a treaty or a land claims agreement within the meaning of sections 25 and 35 of the Constitution Act 1982 and subject to paragraph 1(a) of this agreement does not recognise, affirm, or deny the existence of any aboriginal right, including aboriginal title, or any treaty right.
22. This agreement is not intended to, nor does it, limit in any way any, except as set out in this Agreement, position that a party may take in future negotiations or court proceedings.
23. Any reference to a statute in this agreement includes all regulations made under that statute and any amendments or replacement of that statute.
